Sky Atlas

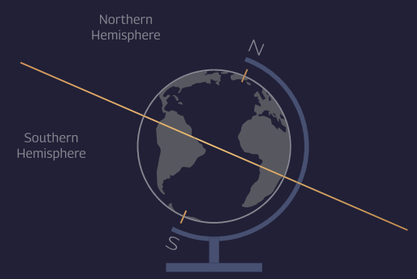
Scan to visit Star Finder

SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE

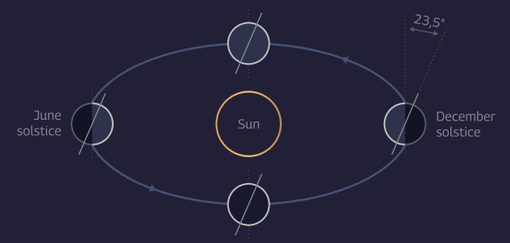
NORTHERN HEMISPHERE

The Earth rotates on its axis relative to the sun every 24 h.

The Earth orbits the Sun every 365.25 days.



The equator line divides the planet Earth into the Southern and Northern hemispheres.



Throughout the year, different parts of Earth receive the Sun's most direct rays, which causes the seasons.